COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

We firmly believe that being active participants in the community is necessary for a successful law practice.

- Robert Friedman has successfully prosecuted over thirty thousand dangerous drivers during the past thirty-four years as Prosecutor for the Village of Akron and the Towns of Newstead and Clarence. He was named 2003 WNY Prosecutor of the Year. Mr. Friedman was Clarence Town Attorney and Special Counsel for the Towns of Alden and Amherst and Village of Alden. He has served on the boards of the Akron Chamber of Commerce, Brothers of Mercy Campus Foundation, Clarence Chamber of Commerce, Clarence Rotary Club (Past President), Clarence Senior Center, Crossroads House, Hearts and Hands-Faith in Action and the Prosecutor’s Association of Western New York (Treasurer). He was Legal Counsel for Akron/Newstead Senior Citizens, Inc., Clarence Industrial Development Agency and Clarence Rotary Club Foundation.

- Mike Ranzenhofer represents the 61st District in the New York State Senate. Previously, he served as an Erie County Legislator for twenty years. He was on the board of directors of the Erie County Industrial Development Agency and S.U.N.Y. Health Services Industrial Review. He was also a task force member of Meals-on-Wheels for Western New York.

- Sam Alba serves on the boards of the Erie County Bar Association, W.N.Y. Media Professionals (Committee to Restore the Broadway Satter Theater), U.B. Law Gold Alumni Group and Hillel WNY. He is Depew Village Attorney and Deputy Village Prosecutor.

- Justin R. Friedman was an active member of the Catholic University Columbus School of Law’s Legal Services Society, organized naturalization seminars for the immigrant community and lead a group to New Orleans to work as public defenders. As an active participant of the law school’s Clemency Clinic, he investigated claims for the Mid-Atlantic Innocence Project and filed petitions for executive pardons and sentence commutations. Mr. Friedman worked as a law clerk in the D.C. Superior Court. He is a member of the Buffalo Rotary Club.
